Disclosure for Programs Leading to Professional Licensure

Program Leading to Professional Licensure: Fremont College's massage programs are designed to lead to voluntary professional certification in California. Fremont College's Massage Therapy and Sports and Rehabilitation Therapy programs are approved by the California Massage Therapy Council (CAMTC).¹

Fremont College's program curriculum meets requirements for voluntary certification licensure in the state of California.

Fremont College has not yet made a determination as to whether our massage program curriculum meets educational requirements for the following states: Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

Individuals who wish to move to a state other than that in which the program is offered should research professional licensure and employment requirements in that state.

¹ CAMTC certifies massage professionals in the state of California. CAMTC certification is voluntary. Neither the State of California nor CAMTC requires you to be certified to provide massage for compensation in California. Please note that some cities and counties do require CAMTC certification.
